

woburn

Woburn Robotics is an extracurricular activity in Toronto, Canada, which gathers students for a multi-national contest that teams students to develop skills in science, technology, engineering, brainstorm, designs, constructs, and test. The theme is different every year. The robots are tested in various tournaments (such as the new Canadian Robotics).